PPTF is developing a game for social networking sites!

Good Morning Traders

All one has to do is look at ZNGA and everyone can see the possibilities and dreams of having a successful game launched on any one of the social networking sites and

PPTF is working on completing one that it hopes will be successful right now!

PPTF is trading in a nice range here at 25-31 cents and has starting building a decent base and could get a nice pop to the upside once they announce the date of the platform release, or the new game

Both of those press releases should be picked up by everyone, and attention usually equals upside for small companies with new products!

This market sector is hot, and with all the attention tech ipo's , social networking companies and the NASDAQ in general is getting, if PPTF hits a home run with this exciting game and pay for play platform, this could be a big win for all of you reading this now.

Get some PPTF today and get ready to trade

I hear rumors of other newsletters beginning coverage on PPTF also, remember we brought it to you first!
